IRISH BLESSING

May love and laughter light your days,
warm your heart and home.
May good and faithful friends be yours,
wherever you may roam.
May peace and plenty bless your world
with joy that long endures.
May all life's passing seasons
bring the best to you and yours!

As the tale goes there was a man name Saint Patrick, that came from decent people in a town name Dublin. His father was a deacon and his grandfather was a priest in the Christian church. Patrick spent six years working as a shepherd and at that time he "found God". With St. Paddy's fist, he gave the snakes a twist then poof he banished them forever. Legend says he died on March 17 and was buried at the small town of Downpatrick. Thus, the reason we now celebrate St. Patrick Day every year on March 17th.

Purim is one of the most joyous and fun Jewish holidays. It's a social and lively time at the temple, remember to say loud boos if Haman's name is mentioned this day which is traditional when you're at temple. Purim is one of the very few holidays that puts a woman at the center of the celebration. Esther is the Queen of Persia that saved all the Jewish people of the town from Haman, the vain and arrogant advisor of the king. Haman used lots, which are something like dice to decide the day of the Jewish people demise. Luckily the beautiful and courageous Queen was there to save the day.

On St. Patrick's Day at Williamsburg Landing we have enthusiastic day plan for you. We are going to reminisce the Luck of the Irish. Our entertainment will be in the lobby at 2 p.m. with Adan Aulet. Come down to hear a melody or two! On St. Patrick's Day don't forget to wear your green or you might get pinch by a leprechaun! As the Irish would say..." Erin Go Bragh! (Ireland forever)
